

Course Syllabus

Subject Number		Professor	Kang- Jung Il
Major	International Studies	Phone Number
Subject Name	International Trade and Finance	E-mail
Credit / Hours	3 Credits / 3 Hours	Classroom	2207

1. Course Description

This course is designed to equip students with general understanding of the international trade barriers practices and systems required to carry out business transactions in the global trade order.

2. Course Objective

In international transactions many dilemmas exist. Taking trade as an example, of the most fundamental dilemmas faced is that an importer and exporter who would like to conduct business with each other live in different countries that are located far apart.

3. Course Purpose

Arranged as a seminar, the course assumes considerable participation on the part of the students. Students are expected to complete all assigned readings and be ready to actively engage in discussions. Each week, two or three students will be appointed.

4. Course Features

5. Course Type

Theory (    ), Theory, Practice (    ), Practice (    )

6. Assignments

7. Grades

Attendance	%	and all that stuff	%
Quiz	%	class participation	%
Report	%	mid-term exam	%
Discussion	%	final-term exam	%

8. Note

A paper which contains any plagiarized material at all will receive an F. If you have a question on whether or not what your doing is plagerism consult your professor. Once you turn your paper in, if it is found to be plagerized there will be no negotia

9. Expectation

10. Required Text (Recommended Texts )

Morrison, Janet. 2002. The International Business Environment, Palgrave (formerly Macmillan Press). In particular, refer to the case studies related to class topics.

Eiteman, David K., Stonehill. A., and Moffet, M. 1999. Multinational Business Finance,

week	Title	Content	multi-media	class room
1	Course Introductions/ Administrations
2	Gains from Trade	Eitman(1999), Chapter 21; 694-709
3	International Business Environment	Morrison (2002), Chapter 1
4	Foreign Exchange Markets	Eitman(1999), Chapter 4
5	Barriers to International Trade	Eitman(1999) Chapter 16
6	Trade-Related International Organizations	Morrison (2002), Chapter 9
7	The Process Creating a Banker's Acceptance	Eitman(1999) Chapter 21; 710-729
8	Mid-Term Exam
9	International Chambers of Commerce and Trade Regulations	Morrison (2002) Chapter 8
10	International Trade and the Syndicated Markets	Morrison (2002), Chapter 11
11	Tools of Settlement in International Trade	Ian Guiled, Forfaiting Ch. 1
12	Letter of Credit (1)	Hinkelman (2000), L/C
13	Letter of Credit (2)	Hinkelman (2000), Incoterms 2000
14	Letter of Credit (3)	ICC Publications 500 (1993) and Uniform Rules for Collections
15	Non-Letter of Credit Payments (DA, DP, and Open Account)	Course Wrap-Up/ Paper Submission
16				