

Class Syllabus

Subject	Korean: 외국어로서의한국어쓰기
	English: Writing of Korean as a Foreign Language
Credit Hours/Time &	3 credits (3 hours)	Class Targets	Exchange Students (Level 2)
Class Summary	This class is a study of how to write content related to weather, transportation, exercise, hobbies, vacations and trips, friends, hospital, daily life, staying in contact and cooking in the Korean language.
Class Purpose	The purpose of this class is to be able to develop an ability to understand Level 2 Korean content of vocabulary and grammar, and be able with practice to write elementary level sentences and statements as time progresses.
Class Goal	The goal of this class is to be able to develop an ability to write and explain life in Korea.
Class Attributes	Learning materials and feedback from phased training activities before and after writing lessons will develop a good sense of understanding and memory.
Grade System	Midterms (30%)	Finals (50%)	Attendance (10%)	Homework (10%)
Important Notes	1. Prepare for lessons well and review the content thoroughly to understand and remember lessons and things learned in class. 2. Avoid being late or missing class and diligently attend the class, submitting important papers and/or assignments on time.
Expectations/Effectiveness	Student will be able to write practical explanations and/or writings about daily life in Korea in the Korean language.

Teaching Materials, References and Recommended Reading List

Title	Publisher
Beginning Korean 2	Soonchunhyang University
Learning Korean with fun 2	Korea University
Yousei Korean 2	Yousei University